5 more years!

BREAKING NEWS!

ON FRIDAY 19 OCTOBER, WE WERE SUCCESSFUL IN OUR RENEWAL BALLOT, GUARANTEEING US ANOTHER 5 YEARS OF DELIVERING MORE FOR NEWCASTLE!

Our businesses voted 88% in favour of NE1 continuing, with 904 ballots cast, 8% up on NE1’s previous record set in 2013. The record turn out and positive ballots cast also means that NE1 is the most supported BID in the United Kingdom! The positive ballot unlocks in the region of £10m of investment in the city over the next five years, so keep an eye out across NE1 as we get started with our third term!

ALL OF WHICH MEANS 5 MORE YEARS OF THIS!

PLUS MORE EXCITING INITIATIVES AND PROJECTS!

On behalf of the entire NE1 team, thank you for your continued support and endorsement of our work. We are looking forward to working with our businesses to deliver even more over the coming five years to make Newcastle an even better place to live, work and visit.

Yours,

NE1 Team
FRESH FROM THE PRESS

And so, that’s it, renewed! We’re absolutely thrilled to say that you’ll be hearing, and seeing, a lot more from us over the next FIVE years as the city’s businesses voted in favour of granting us our third term, making us the most supported BID in the UK in the process. What can we say other than thank you, and we’ll spend our next five years working to achieve even more for this wonderful city. Not only does the successful vote mean that you’ll continue to see our Street Rangers and our Motor Show, continue to eat out during our Newcastle Restaurant Week and build sandcastles on our Quayside Seaside, as well as read this magazine every fortnight, we’ll also be delivering a whole host of new, amazing projects and initiatives!

So we’ve talked about it enough, time to get on and get cracking, and where better to start than with a magazine packed full of events, activities, offers and more? From Halloween to half term, Sausage Week to Santa’s Cinema, we’re giving you 32 pages of reasons to get into Newcastle and enjoy this fortnight!

NE1 TEAM

YOU’LL BE HEARING, AND SEEING, A LOT MORE FROM US OVER THE NEXT FIVE YEARS!

POPPY POWER!
To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Armistice of World War I, Newcastle City Council is calling for the people of NE1 to help in their 2018 ‘Poppy Project’, an initiative to cover Old Eldon Square in knitted poppies. A traditional service of remembrance will take place on the morning of Sunday 11 November at the war memorial in Old Eldon Square, followed by a parade. But, in the run up to the event, the City Council is calling for volunteers to knit and crochet hundreds of poppies to mark this centenary year through traditional crafts. With the help of community groups, local clubs, knitting circles, schools, crafting groups and enthusiastic individuals, this poppy yarn campaign will creatively come to life at Old Eldon Square! A knitting pattern and a crochet pattern, as well as a small amount of wool and buttons, are available for volunteers to collect at the Civic Centre and City Library. Happy poppy making! newcastle.gov.uk

TACO TIME
Food fans can expect an early Christmas present as American fast food favourite, Taco Bell, has announced that its first Newcastle restaurant will be opening its doors in November! The hugely-anticipated foodie spot, on Grainger Street, will serve up the same tasty Mexican-inspired bites our American foodie friends know and love. Think soft and crunchy tacos, beef and bean burritos, loaded nachos and chicken and cheese quesadillas! www.tacobelluk.com

GAMING PARADISE
Calling all gamers... you’re in for a treat! Newcastle’s very own video gaming lounge has arrived at The Gate and it’s packed with a mega mix of both retro and brand new amusements. The CNTRL Pad is the ultimate hangout for people who love all things video gaming, and includes everything from PS1 to PS4, Nintendo Switch to Wii U and Xbox to Sega Dreamcast. With over 200 games covering 30 years of console history, this uber cool spot is set to host tournaments and special events, including student nights and game release launch parties. The CNTRL Pad aims to cover every aspect you can imagine in the wonderful world of gaming. Give it a go! thegatenewcastle.co.uk
ONE FOR YOUR COMEDY CALENDARS...

The Tyne Theatre & Opera House’s comedy programme is packed-out for the final months of 2018 and into early 2019. It’s one of the city’s go-to places to see some of the finest funny people on the circuit. Theatre director Joanne Johnson says: “Tyne Theatre & Opera House is now THE go-to venue for the best comedy shows in Newcastle upon Tyne. We’ve got the likes of Joe Lycett, Dylan Moran, Sara Pascoe and Russell Kane coming up, with more comedy for 2019 still to be announced.” Keep your eyes peeled comedy fans... the latest announcement is Daniel Sloss - best-known for his Netflix comedy specials. Diary dates for those looking for a laugh in NE1! tynetheatreandoperahouse.uk

DINNER AT YOUR DOOR

Get gourmet meals direct to your door thanks to The Assembly Room’s partnership with More More More! The restaurant’s new dining delivery service sends top quality, gourmet menus direct to your home. The More More More service has been operating across the UK for several years, and is now taking to the North East to celebrate our much-loved, local produce. All products are prepared on the day they are due to leave the kitchen and are suitable for home freezing - perfect if you’re planning a dinner party in advance. Each product is individually packed and delivered with straight-forward cooking instructions, so you simply cannot go wrong. Minimum food orders start from as little as £75 with no limits on the number of meals ordered. A seasonal supper round your house, you say? We’re in! more-more-more.co.uk

‘TIS THE SEASON TO BE FESTIVE AT FENWICK

Fenwick is the gift that just keeps on giving this Christmas! Not only do we have the Christmas shop and window to look forward to this winter, but their festive offering will also take shoppers, the people of NE1 and beyond, on an immersive winter wonderland experience high above the city. Escorted by Santa’s helpers, customers and their little ones will be taken on the elf express, through an enchanted forest and up on to Fenwick’s festive rooftop, where they’ll be able to meet Santa before relaxing in Cafe Claus with a hot choccy or mulled wine for grown-ups. What’s more? You can get your festive film fix at Santa’s Rooftop Cinema from 3 November - 22 December. Family classics include: Miracle on 34th Street, The Muppet Christmas Carol, Home Alone, The Holiday, Polar Express and It’s A Wonderful Life. fenwick.co.uk

INTO THE BLUE

Take a deep breath... BBC presenter Anita Rani has been announced as host of Blue Planet II - Live In Concert, coming to the Metro Radio Arena next March! A familiar face on shows such as Countryfile, The One Show and Strictly Come Dancing, Anita will narrate as Sir David Attenborough’s mesmerising show is brought to life live on stage, with accompaniment by the City of Prague Philharmonic Orchestra! Following the incredible success of the BAFTA award-winning BBC One TV-series, the show will be swooping by the Metro Radio Arena on Wednesday 20 March 2019, as part of a UK and Eire tour. This must-see spectacular will showcase a stunning selection of visuals from the TV-series, revealing the beautiful blue planet in breathtaking detail on a state-of-the-art LED screen. On narrating the live concert, Rani said: “I can’t wait to stand on stage with an 80-piece orchestra and huge screen showing some of that incredible Blue Planet II footage, it should be an amazing experience!” metroradioarena.co.uk
Dinosaur World Live!

Dare to experience the dangers and delights of Dinosaur World in this interactive new show for all the family at Northern Stage. Grab your compass and join an explorer across uncharted territories to discover a pre-historic world of astonishing (and remarkably life-like) dinosaurs. Meet a host of impressive creatures, including every child’s favourite flesh-eating giant, the Tyrannosaurus Rex, a Triceratops, Giraffatitan, Microraptor and Segnosaurus. A special meet and greet after the show offers all our brave explorers the chance to make a new dinosaur friend.

5 MINUTES WITH
CHRIS RAMSEY
Our favourite Geordie comedian is back in the North East this Saturday and is ‘just happy to get out of the house’ as he talks toddlers, tipples and top Toon spots with Team NE1 before the show...

Three favourite things about the Toon?
Fenwick Food Hall, House of Tides and Dabbawal - can you see a pattern here?

Best Tyneside moment? Walking onto the stage last year when I played the Metro Radio Arena for the first time. It was an incredible feeling and I can’t wait to do it again!

Your go-to Geordie jaunts? The Stand Comedy Club!

What would you be doing if you weren’t here now? Probably sitting in a van on the way to a tour venue.

Tell us a fun fact? You can always see your nose, your brain just choses to ignore it.

HOW GEORDIE ARE YOU?
Great North Run or Great Bar Crawl? Bar Crawl, hands down. Never done the run.
Green eating or Greggs pasty? Neither. I’m a sausage roll man!
Vintage or Versace? H&M mate... I’ve got a toddler!
Culture or cocktails? Can I include beer in cocktails?
Magpie or mockingbird? Magpie all the way!
Brown Ale or bellini? BOTH?!

BONFIRE NIGHT Bites
TUCK IN TO HEARTY, FLAVOUR-PACKED PIES BEFORE A CHILLY NIGHT OF FIREWORKS...

REDHOUSE
If a cozy pub, complete with log fires and plenty of character, is your idea of heaven, then Redhouse is the place to be. Add award-winning pies, mash, peas and craft ale to the mix and you have yourself the perfect, comforting hang-out on a cold night. Amble Butchers in Northumberland make the pies, which stretch from good old steak and ale, to sausage, apple and cider, chicken and chorizo and spinach, goats cheese and sweet potato. Pick your favourite, add your mash, peas and gravy, then you’re good to go. Foodie-heaven in four simple steps. theredhousencl.co.uk

THE WAITING ROOMS
We love The Waiting Rooms for its chilled-out ‘proper pub’ vibes. Kick-back as the kitchen team serve up plenty of comfort, showcasing Pieminister pies in all their glory. Start with free-range pork scratchings and pigs in blankets, followed by a ‘Moo’ pie (steak and ale), a ‘Free Ranger’ (chicken, ham and leek) or perhaps a ‘Captain Nemo’ (hake, salmon, prawns and pollock). The sides and toppings are out of this world - everything from smoky baked beans and red wine gravy, to minty mash and mac ‘n’ cheese. thewaitingroomsnewcastle.co.uk

THE BOTANIST
You’d be forgiven for thinking The Botanist’s talents stop at creative cocktails, but take a seat in the restaurant and you’ll soon discover the delights of its kitchen. Alongside the famous hanging kebabs, burgers and mouthwatering salads, you’ll also discover a handful of rustic, flavour-packed pies to fill and warm you up ahead of a night out in the cold. Go for chicken, ham and leek, steak and ale, or butternut squash, goat’s cheese and mushroom. All served with gravy and mash - or chunky chips! thebotanist.uk.com

THE AGE OF LOVE Head to BALTIC to see Heather Phillipson’s major new commission, inspired by the venue’s Level 4 Gallery. The new exhibition presents a series of videos, sounds and objects that operate as landmarks in a remixed geology. Somewhere between agricultural vista and lunar wasteland, BALTIC’s galleries become a visual ‘field’, brought to life by functioning farm equipment, holding pens and the noise of circling gulls.

NATIONAL THEATRE MACBETH
13 - 17 NOVEMBER
The National Theatre, creators of War Horse and The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, bring an epic and visually-daring production of Shakespeare’s most intense tragedy, Macbeth, to the Theatre Royal, following a sold out run in London. Set in the ruined aftermath of a bloody civil war, the Macbeths are thrust towards the crown by forces of darkness, ruthlessly fighting to survive. Directed by Rufus Norris (Cabaret, London Road) and designed by Rae Smith (War Horse, This House), the new production propels Shakespeare’s classic title into a post-apocalyptic world of anarchy and uncertainty.

MAKING CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS
24 NOVEMBER
Join the team at Muddy Fingers for an afternoon of clay at the Laing Art Gallery. The crafty, Christmassy session will start with a short demonstration on how to assemble and decorate your festive decorations, then it’s over to you to get creative! There’ll be lots of stamps and mark-making tools, or you can draw your own patterns. Your creations will then be taken back to Muddy Fingers HQ to be dried, fired and glazed. They will then be dropped back off at the Laing for you to pick up around four weeks later - just in time for Christmas!
